Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription HAS THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging-down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not claim to cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

ELIMINATED THE NEGRO.

For the first time in the history of the republican party in Virginia the State convention in Lynchburg yesterday was composed principally of white men, there being about 15 negroes delegates present.

In his speech in accepting the temporary chairmanship State Senator J. C. Noel, of Lee county, declared the convention was a white man's meeting representing a white republican party and any statement to the contrary was a lie. This aroused the greatest enthusiasm of the initial session.

As the session neared the end a negro delegate from the First congressional district endeavored to secure recognition from the chair, but was ignored. When he persisted there were cries of "Sit down!" Five minutes later, as the black delegate was still trying to get the attention of Senator Noel, the convention tried to howl him down. He persisted, and while he was still on his feet a motion was made and carried to adjourn until 7 o'clock.

Senator Noel was placed in nomination for chairman by Roy E. Cabell, of Richmond. In accepting, he declared conditions were never brighter for the Virginia republicans and that he did not believe, if the party acts wisely, that it will be long "before the Old Dominion will get in line with other progressive States." He arraigned the general assembly for alleged misuse of power, and took a whack at the new constitution for its disfranchisement of voters.

At the night session John G. Luce, congressional candidate from the Third district, asked the convention to seat the Vawter delegates, who represented the white republicans of Henrico. This aroused the convention to great enthusiasm. Mr. Luce then moved the adoption of the minority report. Morgan Treat secured the floor to speak for the majority report, and a delegate shouted: "We want a white man!" Then came cries of "Sit down!" followed by hisses from all parts of the house. He refused to stop, and the chairman declared the convention would have to hear Treat's statement if it took all night. Then quiet came and Treat was heard.

F. J. Davenport declared that the republicans of Virginia must eliminate the negro, and now was the time and the convention the place. The speaker tried to stop him, but the convention would not let him, and while he was reading the negro out of the party the delegates yelled themselves hoarse.

Thomas Lee Moore deprecated the disposition to ride roughshod over the negro. He said the negro realized that the white republican is going to run the party, and the convention would do well to leave race prejudice behind.

The race issue was involved in the contest, and after more than an hour's fight on the floor the convention refused to seat both delegations from the Third district with half a vote each, but adopted the minority report, seating the white delegation. Then pandemonium prevailed, and for five minutes the convention was in a good humored uproar. The full report was adopted as an amendment.

The report on permanent organization suggesting Col. William Lamb, of Norfolk, as chairman and George L. Hart, of Roanoke, as secretary was adopted.

As Colonel Lamb entered the hall he was presented with an immense bouquet of roses—a rose for each year he had served the Virginia republicans.

The committee on resolutions reported the resolutions, five in all, in which confidence in republican principles and the party were reaffirmed; indorsing the administration of President Roosevelt, and indorsing the candidacy of Taft and and instructing the four delegates-at-large to use all honorable means to promote his candidacy.

Thomas Lee Moore presented a resolution requesting all uninstructed district delegates to vote for Taft, but this was ruled out on a point of order.

The nomination of four delegates-at large were as follows: C. Bascomb Slemp, Big Stone Gap; S. G. Proffit, of Floyd; S. Brown Allen, of Staunton; Alvah H. Martin, of Norfolk county; B. B. Bowman, of Shenandoah county.

The delegates elected were: Slemp, Martin, Allen and Proffit. The alternates—John B. Kimberley, Henry Bowen, O. D. Oakey and B. B. Bowman.

For the two electors at large there were nominated Senator J. C. Noell, of Lee county, and General John E. Roller, of Harrisonburg, who were then elected by acclamation.

C. Bascom Slemp was re-elected State chairman.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, APR. 9, 1908.

MADGE BARTLETT, aged 7, is a pupil in the Dozier School in St. Louis, and one of the brightest. A few days ago the teacher noticed that Madge was the only one in the room who did not utter a word when the class began to sing "Marching Through Georgia." "That song is a disgrace to the South," said the child, "and if I sing it, my dear old friend, Mr. Robert, would turn over in his grave." Madge referred to the late Rev. P. C. Robert, for twenty-nine years rector of the Church of the Holy Communion in St. Louis, and a strong southern sympathizer. The children of the class were given colored crayons and told to draw the flag of their country. "Why, Madge, what flag is this you have drawn?" the teacher asked. "It's the flag of the Confederacy," replied the little girl. "That's my flag; it's the only one I know." The refusal of the little girl to mingle her voice with the other scholars in singing the song referred to is to be commended from any standpoint. As the Marseillaise causes some people to shudder and think of the blood shed by many who sang that sonnet, the doleful notes of "Marching Through Georgia" bring to mind blackened chimneys and excesses of rude soldiers who had no one to protest against their vandalism save women and children. Besides all this, the tune has so often been rendered by negro bands that the better class of people even in the north have long since grown tired of it.

TODAY is the forty-third anniversary of the surrender of General Lee's forces at Appomattox, after four years of arduous service, marked by great courage and fortitude on the part of his battle-scarred heroes. It was on the following day that General Lee issued his famous address to his immortal band. It was April 7th that Lee formed a line of battle and visited disaster on the Federal Second Corps and Crook's cavalry. After that Lee's men were surrounded by Grant's overwhelming forces. With his trains and supplies captured by Sheridan, thus depriving the southern troops of food and ammunition, General Lee decided to surrender rather than sacrifice the lives of his faithful men. Lee and Grant met in the McLean dwelling at Appomattox and it was there the federal general made known his terms. Immunity from arrest and allowing Confederate officers to retain their side arms and horses were granted. Thus virtually came to an end the "storm cradled nation that fell" but meteor like it flashed across the sky of time with a brilliancy that astonished the older nations and though its cause was lost, yet the principles for which it fought are those which are now held dear to the well thinking and liberty loving people of the whole country.

THE NEGRO was formally read out of the republican party of Virginia at the State convention in Lynchburg yesterday. He in reality ceased to be a factor in the organization a decade or more ago, but the action of the convention yesterday eliminates him entirely from the party, and hereafter he will be, from a political standpoint, a silent spectator. It may, however, prove a blessing in disguise to the colored race, and tend to direct their minds into more profitable channels. Colored voters have always been the tail of the republican kite, and many of the more intelligent of the race have long since realized this fact. The republicans have virtually made no progress in the last two score years in Virginia. They have no more influence with the present generation than their ancestors had upon people living at the close of the civil war. Apparently they are not after proselytes, but the loaves and fishes which are distributed among a select few by republican administrations. They do not want white competitors for such favors, and, of course, will not be antagonized by negroes.

AT THE rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem after the Babylonish captivity we are told that the Israelites worked with a trowel in one hand and a sword in the other. It seems that history is repeating itself in this day. Rev. Vincent Sorrentino, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Loretto, in Brooklyn, went through the dedication service of the new $150,000 edifice last Sunday armed with a revolver, to be prepared for emergency in the event of trouble with members of the Black Hand society, his life having been threatened some time ago. There was a feeling of uneasiness at both the morning and afternoon services, which were guarded by two hundred policemen. During the afternoon parade in which 50,000 persons participated, detectives singled out suspicious-looking men and searched them for bombs or revolvers. Several men endeavored to circulate an Italian paper, on the front page of which was printed a picture of a bomb being exploded.

THE Baltimore papers lay stress upon the arrival in that city yesterday of thirty soft crabs from the Chesapeake bay, which the papers say are the first of the season to be received there. The crabs came from the vicinity of the Rappahannock river, and were very small. Why, the Alexandria restaurants have been furnishing their patrons with fine soft crabs for over a week past!

Another member of the United States Senate is an inmate of a hospital. This time it is Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota, and, although he will be confined for some time, neither his physicians nor friends believe that he is in any danger. The senator was successfully operated upon last night at George Washington University Hospital by Dr. J. J. Richardson for mastoiditis. He has been troubled with a bony growth in his inner ear for a great many years.

Raymond Eason, hospital apprentice, first class, on board the battleship Kentucky, was accidentally shot and killed by a companion in the navy, while on shore at Magdalena bay. The report of the accident wired to the Navy Department by Rear Admiral Thomas, does not give details, as to how it occurred, but it is thought by officials here that it was during small arms target practice on shore. Easton died on April 4, and was buried on shore yesterday. Eason was a native of Maryland. His father, Samuel A. Eason, resides at Easton, Md.

For the second time today, the Sergeant at Arms of the House was sent out by Speaker Cannon to bring in enough members to make a quorum, when the bill to reorganize the revenue cutter service came up. Members rushed on to the floor pell-mell to avoid arrest for absence.

That the mine is set to blow the first hole in the tariff wall, developed at the capitol today. The only thing that remains to set it off, according to those in touch with the situation, is for the speaker to allow the bill to take the duty off wood pulp to come up for consideration.

Washington, April 9.

SENATE.

Senator McLaurin today introduced a bill to require railroads to make report to the Interstate Commerce Commission on or before January 12, 1909, as to the number of miles of road they operate, the value of their property in each State in which they do business, and what property has been donated to them by the general, State, county or municipal governments. They are also to make a statement as to the quantity and value of the rolling stock and the percentage of their gross receipts from their business in each State. This information is to be communicated to the railroad commissioners of the States and may be used as evidence against the railroads whenever admissible.

Senator Gallinger offered the ship subsidy passed by the Senate and rejected by the House committee as an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill.

Senator Dolliver called up the employers liability bill, passed by the House and it was read.

Senator Nelson, who some days ago objected, said he had carefully read the bill and found it to be good and wholesome, containing no unconstitutional features. He hoped it would be immediately passed.

Mr. Dolliver explained the bill, saying it was intended to correct defects in a previous measure pronounced unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. It confines itself entirely to employees of interstate railroads and takes into consideration no other common carriers.

Mr. Forsker believed the constitutionality of the act might be affected by the limitation of liability to railway employees, thereby making a classification of common carriers.

Mr. Dolliver moved to substitute the LaFollette bill for that passed by the House.

Mr. Elkins asked postponement of action. He said no opportunity had been afforded for examination and he was not prepared to vote.

The motion to substitute the LaFollette bill was laid on the table and the debate on the House bill was resumed.

HOUSE.

Minority Leader Williams was on the alert again today.

As soon as Mr. Sherman sought to have the House send the Indian appropriation bill back to conference to correct a clerical blunder, Mr. Williams asked for a rising vote. Only sixty-two voted with Sherman and forty-six against him, wherefore the minority leader asked for the yeas and nays. Mr. Payne made the point of no quorum.

"I make the point that the point of no quorum is dilatory and designed to carry on a disgraceful and idiotic filibuster," declared Mr. Williams with a trace of a smile.

"The determination of a quorum and a roll-call on the question would be rather more speedy than the procedure of the gentleman from Mississippi," drawled Speaker Cannon. Mr. Payne, however, did not think Williams' action the least bit smart and said so.

"There surely is a dilatory intent behind the call for a quorum" said Williams, with a comical pretense at wisdom, "but I suppose the speaker is right."

So the doors were shut, except one where belated members were allowed to come into the chamber.

The republicans sent the army appropriation bill to conference by their very latest gag rule.

The democrats squirmed, but otherwise gave no evidence of parliamentary consciousness at this time.

The bill contained eighty six Senate amendments and with an ungagged filibuster, would have required ten days to send it to conference. It was disposed of in one hour.

When the bill was taken up the speaker read the gag rule, authorizing the voting on the amendments in a bunch. Mr. Williams was not satisfied, but wanted to get into the record a bold statement, that the rule would not permit the voting on the amendments separately.

"Can't we vote down one amendment without voting down all?" inquired Mr. Williams.

"The chair takes pleasure in sending the rule to the gentleman for his information," replied Speaker Cannon.

The republicans all voted "yea" to send the bill to conference and the democrats by voting "no" voted to pass the bill, with all its amendments some of which they oppose.

The vote was yeas 138; noes 117.

The fortification bill was sent to conference by the same procedure, the vote being 139 to 108.

News of the Day.

Herbert H. Asquith was yesterday appointed Premier of England by King Edward.

It is reported from Italy that the Duke of the Aruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins are to be married in September.

Ferdinand Pinney Earle, jr., and Miss Julia Kuttner, the "affinities," were married in Europe after the first Mrs. Earle secured a divorce.

The Senate committee on foreign relations yesterday authorized a favorable report on The Hague treaty relative to the recovery of contractual debts.

Former Governor Richard Yates, of Illinois, has opened his campaign for a nomination for another term by attacking Governor Deneen and his administration.

A dispatch from Eastport, L. I., says tugs today are working hard to save the five-masted schooner George H. Hudson, which stranded on the beach at Shinnecock early today.

Three men were killed today while engaged in painting the new Southern Express building, formerly the Southern Hotel in Chattanooga, Tenn., by the fallinfi of a scaffold.

Women created a panic in a New York school yesterday by besieging the building and crying for their children, fearing the Black Hand would dyamite the building.

Prof. J. W. Gore, of the Department of Science, University of North Carolina, died suddenly early today of tuberculosis at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore. He was 56 years old.

The Kentucky lottery, pleading guilty to the indictment charging violation of the United States laws today in the United States Court at Covington, Ky., was fined $27,700 and agreed to go out of business forever.

Alabama's new prohibition law and the act compelling early closing of saloons were today declared constitutional by the Supreme Court of the State. After January 1 next the whole State will pass under prohibition as the act becomes effective on that day.

Delegates from thirty-seven States attending the conference in Philadelphia, of National Political Colored Americans passed resolutions endorsing Foraker and Knox for President. The resolutions declare that neither Roosevelt nor Taft, if nominated, would receive the negro vote.

The project to construct a waterway from Boston to Key West was again discussed at the White House yesterday. The president said he was deeply interested in everything concerning the country's inland waterways and expressed the hope that this project may at some time be realized.

The old cruiser Chicago, which is obsolete for modern warfare, has laid the great battleships of the navy in the shade in the race between Magdalena bay and Hampton Roads. The Chicago, which left the bay January 31, arrived at Hampton Roads yesterday, making the cruise in two months and seven days.

To aid in the continuation of three charities, Miss Kitty Cheatham tonight will hold a recital in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia, under the auspices of the General Dabney H. Maury Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Prominent among the guests of the occasion will be Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, wife of the governor of Virginia.

The president yesterday accepted an invitation to attend the corner-stone laying early in May of the new home of the International Bureau of the American Republics which building, to be erected in old Van Ness Park, Washington, will cost when completed $1,000,000. Of this amount Andrew Carnegie contributed $750,000 and the goverument with the bureau the remainder.

The naval bill reported to the House yesterday is a disappointment to those who hoped the committee would see its way clear to follow the suggestions of the president regarding a naval programme at this session of Congress. Instead of four battleships, which the president urged, the committee reports in favor of two, but the effort will be made on the floor of the House to have this increased.

Poetry and gag rules reigned during nearly the entire day in the House yesterday, Messrs. Williams, Dalzell, and Sherman being the poets. Two new rules for the suppression of the minority were adopted by party votes. The District of Columbia appropriation bill was passed. Speaker Cannon's two resolutions relating to the paper trust, so-called, were adopted by unanimous vote. At 5 o'clock, in accordance with one of the new rules, the speaker declared a recess until 11:30 this morning.

Death of an Ambassador.

Paris, April 9.—Count Tornielli, Italian ambassador to France and dean of the Paris diplomatic corps, died today. He was stricken with cerebral congestion last Monday while awaiting the arrival of the American diplomat, D. David Jayne Hill, whom he had invited to lunch with him.

LETTER TO CARTER BROS

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sirs: There are thousands of people saying: "That's what I call a good job of paint, it has worn three years. I'm going to repaint before it needs it; three years is enough.

Those people are a long way behind the times. There are two reasons for painting: those people know only one; they are thinking only of wear; of keeping out water. Three years may be too long for the locks of paint; it isn't half long enough for the wear. If all you want of paint is to keep out water, Devoe is good for a dozen years in average places. And that isn't all.

The cost of the job is the first thing to think of, and, if you think of it right, you needn't bother with wear.

The paint that takes least gallons makes the least bill for both paint and painting; people forget the labor bill; it's the biggest bill in the job. A gallon saved is about $5. Five gallons saved is $25. The paint that saves gallons—that's the paint to wear.

George W Brown, Union, S C, painted B F Arthur's house there twelve years ago with 30 gallons; repainted five years ago lead-and-oil with 25 gallons; last year Devoe with 14 gallons. There's $80 saved on paint and labor; don't know what he paid for that 30-gallon stuff; no matter.

Go by the gallons.

Yours truly,
F W DEVOE & CO.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: J. T. Flippen, of Greystone, hand fertilizer-dropper; H. E. Mowmaw, of Salem, sheet-metal roofing; H. W. Via, of South Boston, plow.

An accurate diagram of the territory to be traversed by the Great Falls and Old Dominion Railroad between the Great Falls and Middleburg has been prepared. It will show that a straight line from Herndon to Aldie passes 2 1-2 miles south of Sterling, 2 miles north of Willard, 4 miles from Pleasant Valley, 3 miles south of Ryan and 1 1-2 miles north of Arcola.

J. R. Elder has been confirmed by the Senate as postmaster at Berryville, Clarke county, succeeding Alexandria McCormick, deceased. E. A. Lindsay was indorsed by the referees of the Seventh Congressional district and other prominent republicans, but it is asserted that William Loeb, secretary to the president, befriended Mr. Elder for the postmastership.

Captain Robert E. Lee, of New Kent county, went to Richmond on Tuesday taking with him the sword of General Robert E. Lee. The sword is one which was presented to the Confederate chieftain by Marylanders, and is the same that was worn by him at Appomattox. Capt. Lee took it to Richmond to have it photographed with some old battleflags, now in the possession of the State, as a background.

ANTI-RACE TRACK BILLS DEFEATED.

The vote of Senator Owen Cassidy, of Schuyler, republican, late yesterday caused a tie vote of 25 to 25 in the New York Senate and defeated for the time at least the two Agnew-Hart bills, embodying the recommendation of Governor Hughes that the legal protection be abolished which since 1895 has protected public gambling at racetracks, whereas it is a felony elsewhere in the State.

Lieutenant Governor Chanler, in the chair, by casting his vote to break the tie upon a parliamentary motion which, but for him, would have resulted in killing the bills for the rest of the session, saved them for another vote, at the discretion of their introducer, Senator Agnew, at any time when the order of business permits, him to call up the matter. The importance of this bit of subsidiary procedure may prove to be very great, and if by any means the friends of the bills can gain a vote from the opposition, and at the same time hold the 25 they had yesterday, they might yet pass the bills and send them to the governor.

Governor Hughes made no secret of his disappointment over the result of the struggle. He would not intimate what measures he would adopt in the premises, but that he regards the matter as far from settled he made clear by the following statement issued from the executive chamber last night.

"It is impossible to believe that the people will permit the plain mandate of the constitution to be ignored. The contest has not ended. It has only begun. It will continue until the will of the people has been obeyed."

MURDERED HIS MOTHER.

Bernard Carlin, released from Napponoch prison Tuesday, walked into his mother's home in Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon, and shot her dead, firing five bullets into her body. He was captured in the street after a fierce fight by three citizens, and announced that he would have killed his sister, too, but for the fact that when he reached the house she had a baby in her arms.

"They let me go to prison," said Carlin, "when they could have saved me. I intended to kill the whole family."

Carlin's term expired Tuesday, and he went to New York bent upon killing his mother, his sister (Mrs. Powers) and his brother (Anthony).

At the time of his arrival at his home his mother and his sister were in the kitchen of the flat, and his brother was in the bathroom. After a few minutes of conversation Carlin asked his mother to step into the parlor, saying he wanted to talk to her alone.

Carlin drew a revolver, pointed it at his frightened parent and shot her. The first bullet pierced her brain and she fell to the floor. Carlin stood over her and fired four more bullets into her lifeless body. As he fired the last shot Mrs. Powers rushed into the room.

Pointing the pistol at her, Carlin pulled the trigger half a dozen times. Then realizing that the weapon was empty, he threw it on the floor and rushed from the house just as the brother, who had rushed from the bathroom, grabbed him.

DEATH ENDS ROMANCE.

Twice married within the past few days, the first time under an assumed name at Danville, to which place she had eloped, and at the bedside of her last illness, in the home of her uncle, Rev. Dr. G. B. Strickler, professor at the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Mrs. M. F. Durrence, formerly Miss Bessie Poague, of Lexington, died at 12:40 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Retreat for the Sick in Richmond.

Her brother and her husband were at her bedside, grief-stricken by the sudden and unhappy ending of the brief romance.

Mr. Durrence and his bride eloped to Danville about two weeks ago and were married, Miss Poague giving an assumed name. None of her home people or her relatives knew of the wedding, and the couple came on to Richmond, the bride arriving there in what proved to be her last illness.

Mr. Durrence went to Ford's Hotel, and his wife to the home of her uncle. The news of the Danville wedding leaked out, and Dr. Strickler, determined to set things right, insisted on a second ceremony, and, securing a license, remarried the couple himself.

So ill did Mrs. Durrence become that she was taken to the Retreat, where everything possible was done for her recovery.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found It at Last.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongley, Rootville, Pa. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Message from Gov. Hughes.

Albany, N. Y., April 9.—Gov. Hughes today sent a special message to the legislature urging again the necessity of passing the anti-race track gambling bills. The message reiterates the governor's contention that gambling at race tracks is not carried on through evasion of the law, but under the law as it now exists.

The message suggests the advisability of creating a commission to investigate the methods of Wall street.

Senator Raines moved that the portion of the message relating to race tracks should be laid on the table with the Agnew-Hart bills and the remaining portion be referred to the appropriate committees.

Albany, N. Y., April 9.—Governor Huges will issue a call for a special election in the forty-seventh senatorial district comprised of Orleans and Niagara counties, to be held on May 12, to elect a successor to the late Senator Franchot. The call will be issued today or tomorrow. The chief object is to give the Senate its full membership of fifty-one, so another tie vote on the race track bills will be impossible.

Unless the race track bills in some manner are acted on favorably as this session, which by a concurrence of both houses is to end April 23, it is known that Governor Hughes will call an extra session of the legislature to meet on May 11. In this event the new Senator from the forty-seventh will take his seat before anything is done.

China and Japan.

Pekin, April 9.—Japan is heavily strengthening its military force in the middle island district, concerning title to which it is disputing with the Chinese. Since he first sent his troops into the territory and began the installation of his civil officials following the acquistion of Kores, to which he claimed the district belonged, the mikado has wholly ignored Pekin's protests that the whole area has always belonged to China. In view of the unyielding attitude assumed by Japanese Minister Hayashi in the negotiations with the Chinese government relative to the middle island and other controversies, the increase in the Japanese garrisons is considered especially menacing. The anti-Japanese boycott is rapidly extending to more and more Chinese territory;

Suicide of a Lieutenant.

San Francisco, April 9.—Because he found his salary of $1,500 a year insufficient to provide the necessities of life for his dependent mother and sister, and at the same time leave enough for him to marry the girl he loved, Lieutenant David Q. Lindsay, of the United States signal corps, last night shot and killed himself. Lindsay was in love with a girl who lived in his birth place, Philadelphia, but he could not hope to marry her while he followed the martial professional. Before sending a bullet through his brain, the young officer destroyed all his papers, including his letters from the Philadelphia girl, all his pictures of her, several of which he had carried constantly, and everything that could reveal her identity.

Weds Son's Former Wife Out of "Spite"

Toledo, April 9.—John Kittal, aged 72, has wedded his son's divorced wife, Mrs. Dora Kittal, aged 50, the ceremony being performed at Valparaiso, Ind. The bride was divorced about three years ago at Toledo, and the old man, when he learned of his son's actions, had her come to his home, where she had been keeping house for him, he having been a widower for four years. He said he could easily pass the remainder of his life without a partner, but, that he was marrying his daughter-in-law to spite his son.

Conditions in Portugal.

Paris, April 9.—Rioting has ceased in Lisbon. The government foes have resorted, in its stead, to a campaign of assassination. Several men were shot or stabbed yesterday and last night. Three are dead; a fourth is seriously wounded. The crimes were all plainly political.

The censorship on all messages out of Lisbon continues almost as strict as it can possibly be made without absolutely cutting off communication.

Torpedo Fleet at Magaldena Bay.

San Francisco, April. 9.—The following wireless dispatch was received last night from Magdalena Bay. "The torpedo flotilla has arrived here a day ahead of schedule time. The little ships are prepared for any duty and have covered themselves with glory, by proving their seaworthiness. All the ships are now painted and ready for their reception in California. The fleet is glad to leave here Saturday.

Suicide of a Broker.

Chicago, April 9.—L. N. Knelland, wealthy stock broker, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head at a fashionable apartment building here today. The slump in stocks is believed to have been the cause. Knelland was regarded as one of the wealthiest and most prominent men on the Chicago Exchange. Knelland was 54 years old.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Sodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. Cornell, Rollins, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Explosion of a Locomotive.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 9.—A locomotive on a train on a Naugatuck division blew up at Baldwin this morning and it is reported two men have been killed. P. W. Rowe, the fireman, was blown from the cab and his clothing was set on fire. He ripped off the burning clothing. He was later taken to a hospital.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

President Message.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—More stringent legislation looking to the suppression of anarchy, particularly in the matter of the dissemination of anarchistic literature, is recommended in a special message sent to Congress today by President Roosevelt. The message in full reads:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I herewith submit a letter from the Department of Justice which explains itself. Under this opinion, I hold that existing statutes gave the president the power to prohibit the postmaster general from being used as an instrument in the commission of crime; that is to prohibit the use of the mails for the advocacy of murder, arson and treason; and I shall act upon such construction. Unquestionably, however there should be further legislation by Congress in this matter. When compared with the suppression of anarchy, every other question sinks into insignificance. The anarchist is the enemy of humanity, the enemy of all mankind, and his is a deeper degree of criminality than any other. No immigrant is allowed to come to our shores if he is an anarchist; and no paper published here or abroad should be permitted circulation in this country if it propagates anarchistic opinions. THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Attorney General Bonaparte's letter, accompanying the message, contains an exhaustive review of the statutes with reference to the use of the mails. He finds that although there is no law expressly prohibiting the circulation of anarchistic and seditious publications by means of the postal service, the postmaster general is fully warranted in taking the action he did in the case of La Questione Sociale, an anarchistic paper of Paterson, N. J.

Steamships Race.

New York, April 9.—After a race extending clear across the ocean in which neither vessel was able to obtain a lead of more than ten miles and with first one and then the other leading, the rival trans-Atlantic liners Teutonic, of the White Star Line, and Caronia, of the Cunard Company, arrived here today. The Teutonic won in the race of nearly 3,000 miles by one hour and twenty-six minutes. Passengers on the Caronia declared, however, that the fog last night, which compelled her to slacken speed, cost that steamer the race. Both steamers left Daunt's Rock within forty minutes of each other April 12. Many bets were made on the race by the passengers. The Teutonic covered the 2,887 miles in six days, 21 hours and six minutes. It required six days, 22 hours and 32 minutes for the Caronia to cross.

Earle and His Affinity.

New York, April 9.—It is reported that among the passengers who were landed from the Frederich der Grosse was Francis Earle, the artist, who was wedded to the "orginal affinity," Julia Kuttner, in Italy a short time ago. The wedding followed quickly upon the securing of a divorce by Mrs. Earle in Paris. It is also announced that the couple contemplate another marriage in this country. Earle's visit to this country was necessitated in order that he could claim an estate of $50,000 just left him by his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Earle, who died March 13

Prices of Steel.

New York, April 9.—There will be no reduction in prices of steel commodities, according to a statement issued today by E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation. "The mere fact that the demand is greater than the supply," says Gary, "does not justify an increase in price. Nor does the fact that the demand is less than the supply furnish an argument for lowering the price." Mr. Gary believes that the manufacturers and purchasers as a rule desire stability of prices and the avoidance of violent fluctuations.

Admiral Evans's Condition.

Paso Robles, Cal., April. 9.—Despite the optimistic reports in regard to Admiral Evans it was stated today that he is very ill. He passed the worst night since his arrival last night and suffered a great deal of pain. His condition is aggravated by an injury to his ankle sustained yesterday while he was being wheeled by his son. The ankle was caught between the wheel and a wall and severly bruised. The first few days he was here Evans was buoyed up by stimulants. These have now been withdrawn.

Asquith Confers with Edward.

Biarritz, France, April 9.—England's new prime minister, Herbert H. Asquith, held an all-morning conference with King Edward and left for Paris at noon today. He plans an over night stop at the French capital and will reach London tomorrow evening. Until he reaches home he refuses to say what Cabinet changes will be made under his administration, though he does not deny that he canvassed the situation fully with His Majesty and has his list completely made up.

Complaint Dismissed.

New York, April 9.—After a jury had been empanelled in the U. S. Circuit Court today in the second trial of the case of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company against the American Sugar Refining Company, to recover $30,000,000 under the Sherman anti-trust law, Judge Holt, on motion of Henry W. Taft, dismissed the complaint on the ground that there had been no violation of the law.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 9.—The generally unexpected change in the Erie situation by which a receivership for the system was averted, and the note paid off in cash had a beneficial effect on sentiment and induced a fair amount of buying. Many of the active issues showed fractional gains over yesterday's closing. The sales by the room caused a reaction that was in progress at the end of the first hour. At midday the majority of the list was up slightly higher range than the top prices of the early trading.

Reports are in circulation in Washington that if Bryan is nominated by the democrats, Louisiana will go republican. The rumor is laughed at by the democrats.

APPROVES MILEAGE BOOK PLAN.

W. D. Nesbit, associate railroad commissioner of Alabama, urges the traveling public to co-operate with the railroads in putting into effect their mileage book system. He says the new system makes less book-keeping, thereby permitting lower rates to be put into effect.

Mr. Nesbit says: "There seems to be complaint on account of the fact that the tickets have to be exchanged at the ticket offices for regular card tickets, and not accepted by train conductors except from stations where regular tickets are on sale. Without a full understanding of the situation this requirement of the railroads might be considered arbitrary and unnecessary. As a matter of fact, however, the requirement is one made in order to save expense in the bookkeeping and accounting department of the railroads. Where the mileage strips are taken by conductors on the trains from books sold by one road and good on several roads, special reports have to be made by the conductors on account of this mileage, and special settlement made between the railroads. Under the plan adopted by the railroads this mileage comes only through the regular ticket offices and hence requires a much simpler form of accounting and bookkeeping, and reduces the clerical force necessary to handle the business. It also reduces the possibility of error by conductors in tearing mileage and enables them to handle their passengers much more expeditiously, and, therefore, gives them more time for attention to the running of their trains"

RED LIPS STOP BURIAL.

The funeral services of Miss Kate Hammond, of Berlin, Md., were suddenly suspended yesterday afternoon when what seemed to be signs of life were discovered just before interment was to have been made. The relatives and friends were gathered in the Protestant Episcopal Church and the services there had been concluded and the casket was about to be closed when a redness of the lips was noticed. The attention of Dr. Thomas V. Hammond, of Washington, a brother of Miss Hammond, was quietly called to it and a careful examination was made by him, with Drs. Cyrus W. Dirickson and Zadok P. Hensy. Their opinion last-night is that life is undoubtedly extinct, but out of difference to the lingering hope that there may yet be a spark of life, interment was of course not made. The body is resting in the church under the eyes of friends. Miss Hammond is the daughter of the late Dr. John Hammond. Her mother is a sister of Senator E. Stanley Toadvine, of Salisbury. The family has long been prominent on the Eastern Shore.

SUBSTITUTE BILL.

Major Morrow, Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, forwarded yesterday to Senator Gallinger, chairman of the Senate District committee, a substitute bill for the one recently introduced by Senator Heyburn providing for the purchase of the land south of Pennsylvania avenue for the extension of the mall and upon which to erect a number of public buildings. Maj. Morrow's substitute bill provides for the authorization of an expenditure of $21,000,000 for the purpose of acquiring this land, that sum being in round numbers the price which the commissioners of the District believe the land can be purchased for, although it is $2,000,000 more than the estimate furnished by them to Vice President Fairbanks several days ago.

UNFAVORABLE REPORT.

The Senate committee on public buildings and grounds yesterday ordered an unfavorable report upon the bill of Senator Martin proposing that a commission be appointed to select a site for a building or buildings for the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce and Labor within certain limits in the vicinity of Pennsylvania avenue and Fifteenth street northwest, Washington. Were Mr. Martin's bill favorably reported to the Senate and passed, it would conflict with a bill which has passed the Senate at this session of Congress to purchase for use as the site of the proposed new home for these departments the two blocks south of the avenue and east of Fifteenth street.

SCIENCE SETTLES IT.

Dandruff is Caused by a Germ That Saps the Hair's Vitality.

It is now a settled fact that dandruff is caused by a germ. Falling hair and baldness are the result of dandruff. Dr. E. J. Beardsley, of Champaign, Ill., got hold of the new hair preparation, Newbro's Herpicide—the only one that kills the dandruff germ. He says: "I used Herpicide for my dandruff and falling hair, and I am well satisfied with the result." Dr. J. T Fugate, of Urbana, Ill., says: "I have used Herpicide for dandruff with excellent results. I shall prescribe it in my practice." Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Physicians as well as the general public say so.

For this section fair corer tonight. Friday fair warmer; light northerly winds, becoming variable.

KILLED BY TRAINS.

John Moore, private of Battery D, Third Field Artillery, stationed at Fort Myer, while walking along the tracks of the Arlington-Falls Church Railway, on his way to the garrison, last night, was instantly killed by being struck by train 53, in charge of Conductor Jesse Thomas and Motorman Roy Wrenn. The body was placed aboard the train and brought to the Aqueduct bridge, where it was placed in a patrol wagon and taken to Georgetown Hospital. An examination showed the man had been struck in the back, breaking his spine.

A colored man, apparently about 20 years old, was killed by an incoming train about 100 yards south of the union passenger depot late last night. The body after being discovered was removed to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaker's establishment. The right side of the man's face had been crushed and his left leg was broken. A Southern Railway passenger train reached the depot at 11:47 o'clock, and it is supposed by some that the unfortunate man attempted to board it. Dr. Moore, the Coroner, will hold an inquest tomorrow.

DINNER TO MR. CARLIN.

Representative C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, who represents the Eighth district in Congress, was forty-two years old yesterday. Twenty years ago Mr. Carlin was a newspaper man, and for several years war the Alexandria correspondent of a Washington paper. While working in the newspaper profession, Mr. Carlin studied law, and upon graduation was admitted to the bar and practiced with success in Alexandria. Upon the death of Representative Rixey, Mr. Carlin became a candidate for Congress, and was elected to the present House.

Last night a score of his newspaper friends tendered him a dinner at La Boheme, in Washington, in honor of his birthday. Representatives of the leading newspapers in the country were present as were also several Alexandria correspondents. Charles A. Hamilton, of the Troy Times, was toastmaster.

THE PROPOSED SUB-STATION.

As heretofore stated an effort will be made to have the new sub-station in south Washington, authorized and required to be built under the Union Station act, located near Seventh street. The Virginia patrons of the railroads entering Washington regard the location at the foot of Fourteenth street as about as inconvenient as it well could be. Senator Martin and Representative Carlin have been appealed to by the Virginia commuters and others to take the matter up, and have gone over the proposed locations with a view of determining where it should be located. They both agree that the Seventh street location is practically essential to reaching the heart of the city with promptness and without the burden of paying two fares. Therefore, they will use all their exertions to have the station built where it will be most convenient to the traveling public.

NEGROES FIGHT.

Considerable excitement was caused at the intersection of Gibbon and Royal streets yesterday evening by a row between Malinda Level, and Malvin Russ, both colored. The woman attacked the man and fought as a tigress, using stones, bottles and a knife. Russ knocked her down several times in order to escape injury from her. Officer Henderson was in the vicinity and he managed to capture the woman, but the man escaped. He was, however, arrested by Officer Roberts. The prisoners were brought before the Police Court this morning when the Level woman was fined $10. Russ was dismissed, as it was shown that he acted on the defensive.

BEATEN BY ROBBER.

Kenneth J. Huffman, a brakeman in the Potomac railway yards north of this city, reports that he was held up and beaten by a robber as he alighted from a train in the yards Tuesday night. The man demanded money, and when Mr. Huffman refused to comply with the demand, he was knocked down by a blow on the head with a heavy stick. As Huffman attempted to get up, he was again knocked down. Railroad men came to Mr. Huffman's assistance and the negro fled.

MODERN WOODMEN MEET.

Alexandria Camp, No. 11,335, Modern Woodmen of America, held a large and interesting meeting in Sarepta Hall last night, when considerable business of importance to the camp was transacted. Five new members were initiated and ten applications for membership were received and referred to the proper committee. Mr. C. W. Dettor was elected a delegate to the State camp and Julius Wolf, alternate. At the next meeting the degree team and officers from Washington will visit the camp.

WASHINGTON NAVY YARD.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry said yesterday there would be no more laying-off of employes in the Washington navy yard during the remainder of the fiscal year. After that time, the matter of retaining employes and the work of the yard in general would altogether depend on the naval programme. He said that if Congress authorizes the construction of more ships, arms and armament will have to be made, and that will necessitate the running of the yard to its present capacity.

RELEASED.

The long boat Perl, on which there had been a case of smallpox and which had been held in quarantine below this city for sometime was released yesterday and proceeded to Aquia Creek, where she belongs.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder pills are prompt and thorough and will in a short time strengthen weakened kidneys and allay troubles arising from inflammation of the bladder. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

PERSONAL.

Rev. Wm M. Dame, of Baltimore, will preach at the Lenten service at Christ Church tonight. Mr. Dame was formerly rector of Christ Church and has many friends in Alexandria.

Mrs. S. C. Neale gave a luncheon on Tuesday at her residence in Washington in honor of Mrs. Swanson, wife of the Governor of Virginia, who returned to Richmond yesterday after a delightful stay with Mrs. Arthur Wallace Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stonnell and little son left today to attend the marriage of Dr. Barton Holland, of Philadelphia, a brother of Mrs. Stonnell.

Miss Fannie Dixon is the guest for a fortnight of Mrs. William T. Howard, at her residence, 2015 Maryland avenue, Baltimore.

Mr. John W. Travers, who has been quite sick, is convalescent.

WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Lena Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Williams, of Clarke's Gap, Virginia, and Mr. Carl L. Lacey, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lacey of the same town, took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Claude Myers, of Washington, April 1st. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Rev. H. W. Pratt, of the Second Southern Presbyterian Church of Washington performed the ceremony. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white organdie over white silk and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. After the reception the young couple left Washington for the south.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Malinda Level, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $10.

Malvin Russ, colored, charged with similar offenses, was dismissed.

James Downey, charged with vagrancy, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

CASTLES IN THE AIR.

Doubtless there is no more popular lecturer in the country than Senator Robert Taylor, of Tennessee. He often receives $500 for delivering his best lecture, "Castles In The Air." It is a literary gem, enriched with pathos and humor. A treat is in store for the people of Alexandria, as he is to deliver this lecture in the Young People's Building tomorrow evening. Senator Taylor, accompanied by a party of friends, will come to Alexandria tomorrow evening on a special car.

MEETING.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lanston Monotype Machine Company was held at the Hotel Fleischmann today for the purpose of electing a board of directors. The following were chosen: Messrs. J. C. Maben, R. Suydam Grant, William M. Laffan, Joseph Bryan, William H. Goadby, H. C. Hallenbeck, Adrian H. Larkin, H. O. Seixas, Henry Parsons, J. Maury Dove and Gen. Maxwell Woodhull.

CASE SOON DISPOSED OF.

John Morris and George Shaw, the two negroes arrested in Washington Monday night for robbing Hanson & Co's store at Manassas last Sunday night, were yesterday sentenced by the Circuit Court of Prince William to ten years' confinement in the penitentiary. This was quick work. Within twenty-four hours after the darkeys reached Manassas they had been tried, convicted and sentenced.

REMAINS TO BE BROUGHT HOME

Connie Gray, colored, of this city, a member of Company H, 25th U. S. infantry, died September 25, 1907, in the Philippines Islands, as was stated in the Gazette at that time. His remains are on their way to Alexandria and the funeral will take place from 311 Duke street, when they arrive. The deceased was the husband of Sarah J. Gray, one of the public school teachers.

BOY CUT.

Two colored boys, John Holmes and Harry Bundy, became involved in a fight yesterday evening when the former cut the latter with a knife. Holmes was arrested and brought before the Police Court this morning, but Bundy was unable to appear. Three stitches were taken in his wound.

PORTO RICO MOLASSES.

A consignment of 500 hogsheads of Porto Rico molasses direct from that new possession was received today by Messrs. Charles King & Son, and more is on the way. An advertisement in today's Gazette tells of the consignment.

BENNING.

Pete Dailey, owned and ridden by Mr. Courtland H. Smith, won the Chevy Chase Steeplechase at Benning on yesterday. Mr. Smith's other entry, "My Grace," took second place in the same race.

THE SCHOOLS.

The boy's school recently removed from Academy building was this morning opened in Armory Hall, where it will remain till other arrangements are made. All the schools are in operation.

A NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.

Contractors may as well get their bids ready, for it is almost certain that the Young Men's Senate at its session tonight will decide that a new building for girls should be erected.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

WANTS SAGAN'S RECORD.

It became known in New York yesterday that George J. Gould has applied to the chief of police of Paris for the record of Prince Helie de Sagan. This move of the head of the Gould family following directly upon the official announcement which was made Tuesday that Mme. Gould was not engaged to be married to anybody is regarded by the prince as another attack on him from the same quarters.

In common with most continental countries, the French constabulary has on file the complete life history of every one within its jurisdiction, so that George Gould's intention is obviously to obtain a list of all of Helie's escapades and lay them before his sister. It is alleged that Helie's gambling debts are enormous. All in all, it is rumored that he owes at least $6,000,000. Every acre of land the family owns in Sagan and Perigord is mortgaged to its full valuation. Helie's father, now a decrepit paretic, 80 years old, is living in an obscure quarter of Paris, supported by the charity of friends.

Genuine Porto Rico Molasses.

In June, 1907, we offered for sale the first lot of Porto Rico Molasses that had been imported direct to Alexandria since the Civil War. The shipment was a large one and was fairly well distributed among our many customers. Since then we have had numerous repeat orders, and we are now placing on the market our fifth importation. The Molasses produced in Porto Rico, like our New Orleans product, has suffered with advent of modern science, but there is still some Old Fashioned Sugar Estates left that make

Molasses by the Muscovado or Open Kettle Process,

And our Mr. Frank King, while in Porto Rico, succeeded in making contract with factors of several of these plantations, and we now offer the goods for sale.

To those who have had some of the Molasses out of previous shipments, it is not necessary to talk quality, as orders are coming in to us "Ship like last," but we desire to extend the trade to those who do not know us.

We renew our guarantee that if the Molasses is not satisfactory, it can be returned at our expense.

THURSDAY EVENING, APR. 9, 1908.

Not a Soloist.

The late Theodore Thomas was rehearsing the Chicago Orchestra on the stage of the Auditorium theater. He was disturbed by the whistling of Albert Burridge, the well known scene painter, who was at work in the loft above the stage. A few minutes later Mr. Thomas' librarian appeared on the "bridge" where Mr. Burridge, merrily whistling, was at work.

"Mr. Thomas' compliments," said the librarian, "and he requests me to state that if Mr. Burridge wishes to whistle he will be glad to discontinue his rehearsal."

To which Mr. Burridge replied suavely, "Mr. Burridge's compliments to Mr. Thomas, and please inform Mr. Thomas that if Mr. Burridge cannot whistle with the orchestra he won't whistle at all."—Success Magazine.

The Sheep in the Grass.

Lord Palmerston once inspected "Summer in the Lowlands," a picture by Sir John Watson Gordon. "Look here," said Lord Palmerston to the artist, "why should the grass in that field be so long when there are so many sheep in the field?"

"My lord," replied the artist, "those sheep were only turned into the field last night!"

Peculiar to Itself.

"I suppose there is a certain fascination that keeps you in the racing game?"

"Yes," admitted the bookmaker, "there is. I've tried hardware, clothing, groceries and shoes, but I've never struck another line where people simply struggle to hand you their coin."—Kansas City Journal.

Cruel.

Miss Oldun—Oh, dear, I'm afraid I shall have to get some of that wrinkle eradicator they advertise. Miss Pertly—Let me get it for you. I have a brother in the wholesale drug business. —Boston Transcript.

A Philosopher.

"Pa, what is a philosopher?"

"A philosopher, Tommy, is a man who doesn't worry any about financial stringencies, because he never has any money."—Somerville Journal.

You might as well expect one wave of the sea to be precisely the same as the next wave of the sea as to expect that there would be no change of circumstances.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal Catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will the swelling and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membranes. The fits of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, will be stopped when the causes that produce it are removed. Cleanliness, comfort and renewed health by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York

Love and Death.

Very closely love and death dwell together—high up in the world of nature and low down! The following well authenticated story comes from Northamptonshire: A sparrow hawk was killed when feeding her young. Four days later when the nest was examined it was found that the little male bird, working alone for the family, had brought home forty-eight birds—viz, six larks, nine swallows, one bullfinch, seven robins, six sparrows, six hedge sparrows, nine blue tits, three chaffinches and one wren.

What a spirit of dutifulness along with ferocity is here exhibited on the part of the small widower hawk, who evidently thought that the best way of respecting the memory of his departed consort was to feed her children well! And in doing this how absolutely oblivious nature had rendered him of the feelings of the poor larks, swallows, bullfinches and robins, whose offspring—or the parents themselves—his relentless parental affection thus annexed! The direst cruelty animated by the tenderest love! The most savage egotism prompted by an entire unselfishness! Such are some of the problems which nature furnishes, but will not solve.—London Telegraph.
